New Hampshire Department of Revenue Administration Announces the Retirement of Barbara Robinson, Director of Municipal Services Division

The NH Department of Revenue Administration announces the retirement of Barbara Robinson, Director of Municipal Services Division. Ms. Robinson has been a valued member of the Department team since 1989. Serving in various roles over the years, she has served her most pivotal role as the Director of the Municipal Services Division for 13 years, overseeing the tax rate setting and budget approval process for 550 municipalities. Ms. Robinson has been instrumental in modernizing the Division. Her last day with the Department will be October 31st. Interim leadership will be assumed by Mr. Stephan Hamilton, current Director of Property Appraisal Division. The Department is deeply appreciative of Ms. Robinson's many years of dedication to serving the communities.
