INSTRUCTIONS

WHO MUST FILE

If you are claiming a refund on behalf of a deceased taxpayer, you must file Form NH-1310.

WHERE TO FILE

Mail forms to the New Hampshire Department of Revenue Administration, Taxpayer Services Division, PO Box 3306, Concord, NH 03302-3306.

FORMS SHALL NOT BE FILED BY FAX OR EMAIL

LINE A

Check the box on Line A if you are a surviving spouse filing a joint return but requesting a refund in your name only, or if you received a joint refund check but are requesting a new check in your name only. For either request, you must include a copy of the death certificate with a completed Form NH-1310. If you are requesting a new check in your name only, you must also return the joint refund check with Form NH-1310.

LINE B

Check the box on Line B only if you are the decedent's court-appointed administrator or executor. You must include a copy of the court certificate showing your appointment and a copy of the death certificate with the completed Form NH-1310. A copy of the decedent's will cannot be accepted as evidence that you are the personal representative.

LINE C

Check the box on Line C only if you are the trustee of the trust. You must file a certificate of trust, trust affidavit, a copy of the trust, and a death certificate with the completed Form NH-1310. A copy of the decedent's will cannot be accepted as evidence that you are the personal representative.
