v.

Department of Revenue Administration

Docket No. 25446-09LM

DECISION

The board has reviewed the parties' statements filed in response to the February 8, 2011 Order. That order directed the parties to submit written statements regarding whether this appeal should be dismissed without a hearing. For the reasons set forth in the statement of the department of revenue administration ("DRA"), the appeal is dismissed.

In brief, the board finds the DRA did not commit any error of law or engage in arbitrary or unreasonable action when it determined the "Taxpayer" did not qualify for any Low and Moderate Income Homeowners Property Tax Relief for tax year 2009. See RSA 198:60, II. By the time of his application for that tax year, the Taxpayer no longer owned the property, having transferred full ownership (via a Quitclaim Deed dated February 7, 2008 and subsequently recorded) to a limited liability company ("LLC"). On the facts presented and under the statutes and regulation cited by the DRA, the Taxpayer is not eligible for this tax relief. See RSA 198:57, III (a); RSA 198:56, II; and Rev 1201.03. The Taxpayer's counter-arguments regarding the "Declaration of Homestead" he signed in March, 2008 and the claim that he is the sole member of the LLC now owning the property do not change the outcome of this appeal.

Any party seeking a rehearing, reconsideration or clarification of this Decision must file a motion (collectively "rehearing motion") within thirty (30) days of the clerk's date below, not the date this decision is received. RSA 541:3; Tax 201.37. The rehearing motion must state with specificity all of the reasons supporting the request. RSA 541:4; Tax 201.37(b). A rehearing motion is granted only if the moving party establishes: 1) the decision needs clarification; or 2) based on the evidence and arguments submitted to the board, the board's decision was erroneous in fact or in law. Thus, new evidence and new arguments are only allowed in very limited circumstances as stated in board rule Tax 201.37(g). Filing a rehearing motion is a prerequisite for appealing to the supreme court, and the grounds on appeal are limited to those stated in the rehearing motion. RSA 541:6. Generally, if the board denies the rehearing motion, an appeal to the supreme court must be filed within thirty (30) days of the date on the board's denial with a copy provided to the board in accordance with Supreme Court Rule 10(7).

SO ORDERED.
