New Hampshire Department of Revenue Administration Announces the Appointment of Attorney Kathryn E. Skouteris as Revenue Counsel

Commissioner Kevin Clougherty and Assistant Commissioner Margaret “Missy” Fulton are pleased to announce the appointment of Attorney Kathryn E. Skouteris as Revenue Counsel. A graduate of the University of New Hampshire and Suffolk University Law School in Boston, Skouteris began her legal career in Boston, where she practiced for over seven years in the areas of administrative law, employment law and complex business litigation.

In June 2010, Attorney Skouteris joined the Department as Assistant Revenue Counsel. For the past year and a half, she has focused on streamlining efforts in the Legal Bureau and improving communications between employees of the Department and the public on a variety of legal issues. In addition, Attorney Skouteris has devoted considerable effort to resolving disputes during the audit process. As Revenue Counsel, she will continue to manage tax litigation, bankruptcy cases, and the rulemaking process, as well as advise the Department in its general business matters.
